Attention 11th and 12th Grade Parents:

The projected travel plan is as follows:

Lv – Between 6am to 8am - Thursday, December 13

Ret – Late Evening – Saturday, December 15

(Students will miss 2 days of school and should plan accordingly in advance with teachers)

The total cost of the trip to Washington DC is $270 (if paid by Nov 26) and will cover 2 nights lodging and roundtrip airfare to Washington DC (Reagan National Airport). It will also cover ground transportation to and from the Airport and subway travel in DC. If paid between November 27 and December 3, the cost will be $375. GWU and Howard University are 2 of the finest 60 Private Schools in the country per USNews and World Report's 2010-11 College Review. I can take up to 6 youth with me on this trip, but can plan for more and bring more chaperones if I immediately know who wants to go!

Here is what we need to in order to include your youth in this tour/trip:

(1) First E-mail me NOW and tell me you are sending your youth and/or you are going! E-mail me at holythinkers@gmail.com

*Very Important!!!!!! - If you do not email, I will assume your son or daughter is not traveling with us.

(2) Here are the dates and amounts for the non-refundable deposits I need to have to hold tickets with Alaska Airlines:

$270 – if PAID through Paypal by Monday, November 26

OR

$375 – if PAID through Paypal between Tuesday, November 27 and Monday, December 3

Please, no exceptions or extensions!

Note: All payments must be made on line. Absolutely NO E-checks or checks can be accepted - no exceptions.

(4) When you email me, I will send you a permission slip, health insurance information and travel agreement.

Yes, college travel does help make college real for students and is a sure promoter of academic achievement. Really consider making this sacrifice particularly if your youth is applying to these 2 DC Schools.

Please call or email me if you have any questions.
